Mr. Edgar Zazueta Biography

Edgar Zazueta currently serves as the Director for the Office of Government Relations for the Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD). Prior to this appointment, Edgar was a Legislative Consultant for State Senator Denise Moreno Ducheny.

Edgar's first experience in Washington DC came as a 2001 Congressional Hispanic Caucus Institute (CHCI) Intern. After completing his undergraduate degree, Edgar was one of twenty individuals selected nationwide to participate in the CHCI Fellowship program. While in Washington DC, Edgar worked for the White House Initiative on Educational Excellence for Hispanic Americans. In this capacity, he traveled around the country collecting data in various Latino communities and assisted in the development of an advisory report that was presented to President Bush on the status "Hispanic Education".

In 2003, Edgar was selected to participate in the prestigious California Senate Fellows Program in the state capital.

A native of Southern California, Edgar received his Bachelors Degree in Political Science from the California State University, Fullerton and a Masters in Public Administration from the University of Southern California. While in college, Edgar served in various leadership positions including student body Vice President and Inter-fraternity Council President. He also devoted much of his time to his work as Upward Bound college preparatory counselor.

Edgar currently resides in Sacramento, CA where his job consists of representing LAUSD before the California Legislature. He resides with his partner, Michelle, and baby daughter Evah Natalia.
