

GOVERNOR ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER

May 2010

World Trade Week

I am delighted to extend my greetings to all those who have come together for the eighty-fourth anniversary of World Trade Week.

California's size, international border, access to the Pacific and spirit of innovation make it a key player in global trade. What happens in our Golden State affects business climates far and wide. That is why I am excited to know that events like this are strengthening opportunities for trade and growth here in California and beyond.

My gratitude goes to everyone who is participating in this year's commemoration of World Trade Week. As one of the world's largest economies, California relies on hard-working individuals like you to maintain our economic strength and international influence. Thank you for your efforts to make our state an even better place to call home.

Please accept my best wishes for a terrific week and every future success.

Sincerely,

Arnold Schwarzenegger
