

Los Angeles Area
Chamber of Commerce

David Chase

Small Business Majority, California Outreach Manager

David Chase currently manages the Small Business Majority's Sacramento office. His focus is on the relationship between small business organizations throughout California with legislators and policy makers.

He previously worked for four years in the office of California Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger, where he was able to build alliances with businesses to help with the progress of the Governor's agenda.

David played a large role in building the coalitions necessary for Governor Schwarzenegger's 2007 comprehensive health care reform proposal.