

Los Angeles Area
Chamber of Commerce

BILL ROSCHEN
PRINCIPAL
ROSCHEN VAN CLEVE ARCHITECTS

As a Principal at Roschen Van Cleve Architects, Mr. Roschen has continually reinforced his belief in community-oriented, historic restoration and “green” design tapered with a commitment to the city and public realm. Mr. Roschen attained his degrees from Columbia University as well as Arizona State, where he specialized in energy efficient design. In 2005, his firm was awarded the Los Angeles Business Journal’s Real Estate Award for “Architects of the Year”, highlighting his many accomplishments as a professional.

Prior to the opening of Roschen Van Cleve in 1987, Mr. Roschen spent 15 years as an appointed advisor the Community Redevelopment Agency in Hollywood and has continually served as an advisor to Councilmember’s Woo, Goldberg and Garcetti on large developments planned in Hollywood. Most recently, Mayor Villaraigosa appointed Mr. Roschen to serve as Vice President to the City Wide Planning Commission. He is also a California State Commissioner and serves on a variety of non-profit boards, such as Coro.