JEFF MCCONNELL
DIRECTOR OF LEGISLATIVE ADVOCACY
ARNIE BERGHOFF AND ASSOCIATES

Mr. McConnell, Director of Legislative Advocacy, is also a registered lobbyist and has been part of the firm since 2003. In addition to lobbying, Mr. McConnell is responsible for monitoring and analyzing legislation and administrative actions of various municipal agencies for potential impacts or opportunities for the firm's clients. He also drafts language and arguments for proposed legislation or actions that promote client business interests. Mr. McConnell is an active member of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce where he serves on the Transportation and Goods Movement, Environmental Quality and Education and Workforce committees. Prior to joining Arnie Berghoff & Associates, Mr. McConnell was a legislative deputy to Los Angeles City Councilmember Nick Pacheco. His duties included oversight of Downtown Los Angeles development, the City Department of Transportation, the Departments of Public Works, the Library Department and the City's Budget.
